

From Your Resident Friar

In this season of Thanksgiving, I am thankful for this family of faith and the love we share. I give thanks that God has provided us with resources to worship and participate in ministry with the community. With out doubt, Ridgeland Drive Baptist Church has much for which to be thankful.

However, we are called to be good stewards of what we have been given. This often involves difficult, yet informed decisions. I encourage you to come to the special Called Business Meeting, on Sunday, November 6 at 5:00 p.m. At this time, we will discuss, as a congregation, perceived needed adjustments to the 2023 Budget.

-Tim

Christmas Poinsettias

Beginning this year, the church will no longer purchase live poinsettias. Excess funds collected through the years have been used to purchased silk poinsettias to place in the sanctuary during the Advent season.

We invite you to make a "Christmas Gift" contribution to the General Fund. An acknowledgment of whomever you wish to honor or memorialize will be made in the Order of Worship on the second Sunday of December. Contribution forms are available on the hall tables. Contributions must be received by Sunday, December 4. Checks should be made out to RDBC.

Hanging of the Greens Sunday, November 27 5:00 p.m.

Join us for this informal time to decorate the church. We plan to decorate, sing carols, and enjoy this time of fellowship as a family of faith.
